Dear Bud:

Many thanks for your letter. Before commenting on its content, let me first offer my congratulations and those of your other friends here on your new appointment. We are all delighted you got the job, particularly since from our own parochial point of view you absorbed so much of the operational problem of collection against the [redacted] and the potential that exists here for work against it.

On your offer of a man and slot from OSI to assist in work against this target, we share your enthusiasm. If we could have someone of the caliber of [redacted] we feel he could make a real contribution both in the further exploitation and development of existing intelligence resources and in serving as a stimulant and advisor in the development [redacted]

We are attempting to upgrade this latter effort and are considering asking [redacted] to help us find an S&T operations officer of middle grade to help us do so.

If you can supply a man, I would want him to report directly to me and my deputy and range over the whole field of S&T collection. The second officer above would be put into our agent operations branch as head of a section devoting itself exclusively to S&T work.

I am sending a copy of this letter to [redacted] in the interests of keeping him informed of this exchange. I will be in Washington from 8 to 13 September accompanying a most important visitor but hope to have a chance to talk to you at least briefly.

With best personal regards,

Sincerely,

[redacted signature]
